

... Dr. Goenkaji for his unstinting and self-less devotion towards the showing of the Eight-fold Noble Path to all those who have come for relief from suffering. Sabba Danam Dhamma Danam Jinati - of all the gifts, the gift of the Dhamma is the noblest, the greatest. This priceless gift of the Dhamma you have shown to one and all out of compassion to mankind. For all this we pay our respects - to your energy, devotion, volition and above all, to your high Parami. Without the requisite parami of a teacher one cannot do what you are doing, no matter how good volition one may have. One may compete with another in effort or determination but one can never compete with another in the matter of parami. So once again our deepest regard and respect for what you are doing.

[letter from U Tint Yee, President of IMC, 1980)